AS WE PREPARE TO SET FORTH UPON THE TRAIL OF LIFE, WE REALIZE MORE CLEARLY THAN BEFORE THE VALUE OF OUR HERITAGE. AROUND THIS HERITAGE, WE, THE STAFF, HAVE TRIED TO BUILD A MEMORY THAT WILL CARRY US THROUGH OUR FUTURE YEARS AND OFFER A READY MEANS OF RETURNING TO THESE UNFORGETTABLE YEARS SPENT IN THE WIGWAM OF KNOWLEDGE. THE ENTIRE STAFF HEARTILY WISHES TO PRESENT AN ANNUAL THAT WILL PROVE TO BE AN INVALUABLE RECORD OF THESE PAST THREE YEARS.

D E D I C A T I O N

WE, THE CLASS OF 1940, DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK TO YOU, OUR SPONSORS. DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS, YOU HAVE BEEN OUR CHIEFTAINS, GUIDING US IN OUR PLANS AND LEADING US FORWARD SO THAT WE MIGHT SUCCESSFULLY REACH THE TERMINATION OF OUR FIRST ADVENTURE INTO LIFE.

MESSAGE FROM MR. ENTERLINE

Now that you have come to the end of your public school career, it is easy to conclude that your tasks are ended. Still, with your maturity and judgment, you have already sensed the fact that the great school of out-of-doors is immediately demanding practical answers to many questions. Your answers will depend, in part, on your recognition of the problems, your understanding of them, and on the sincerity and the enthusiasm which you exercise in attacking them. And you may expect a reward, either material or spiritual which accompanies sincerity of effort and devotion to a cause. May your theme, "Indian Lore", help you to familiarize yourself quickly with the practical aspects of life.

Then too, may we remind you that your understanding and appreciation of life will be enriched by the worthy friendships you make. The pleasant or unpleasant associations you make will depend upon your tact, judgment, and self-control. Thus, you should be both a practical and a sociable person.

Your sponsors have had many delightful experiences in working with the class of 1940, and here is their wish. May every member of this great class be fortunate enough to find some worthy endeavor in life to which he can devote himself with such zest and zeal that it will bring him honor, a most satisfactory means of support, and promote good-will in the environment in which he moves.

MESSAGE FROM MR. HILLEGASS

Your slogan, "Life Begins With Forty" is quite appropriate. You stand at the beginning of a new decade. Despite the economic, social, and political troubles of the day, there is a very heavy demand for competent, dependable, and well-trained workers. Through the ages, the ability to think clearly has always been considered a desirable quality. The young man or woman, who has learned to think clearly and is equipped in character, in personality, in competence, and in skill, is not likely to wait long to "Begin Life with '40."

May I extend my sincere wishes to each one of you, and hope you will live a full life so that your reward may be a life full of real happiness.

MESSAGE FROM MISS HICKS

With what ideals and ideas do you face the future, O Class of 1940, here and everywhere? What do you consider the most important in life, what really matters most to you? Upon your answer depends the character of our world of tomorrow. May you have the courage to aim at the highest for yourself and your fellowmen.

THEME EXPLANATION

SINCE THE VERY FIRST EXPLORER SET FOOT ON THIS CONTINENT, THE INDIAN, HIS LIFE, HABITS, RELIGION, AND CEREMONIES HAVE PROVED A SUBJECT ABOUT WHICH MEN HAVE SPECULATED, STUDIED, AND WRITTEN. BECAUSE OF THIS INTENSE INTEREST, THE INDIAN MOTIF HAS BEEN CHOSEN FOR OUR YEARBOOK; AND, BECAUSE THIS YEAR EVERYTHING ABOUT OUR GRADUATION PROGRAM IS TRULY AMERICAN, WE COULD NOT COMPLETE OUR PROGRAM WITHOUT GIVING THE AMERICAN INDIAN A PROMINENT PLACE IN THE ARRANGEMENTS. TRULY, WHO CAN MEASURE THE CONTRIBUTIONS THE AMERICAN INDIAN HAS MADE TO OUR HIGHLY SPECIALIZED MODERN SOCIETY AND WHO CAN JUDGE THE EFFECT WHICH HE HAS HAD UPON OUR CIVILIZATION?

SONG OF THE RACE

(Primα)

MANY PEOPLE HAVE GATHERED TOGETHER,
I AM READY TO START IN THE RACE,
AND THE SWALLOW WITH BEATEN WINGS,
COOLS ME IN READINESS FOR THE WORD.

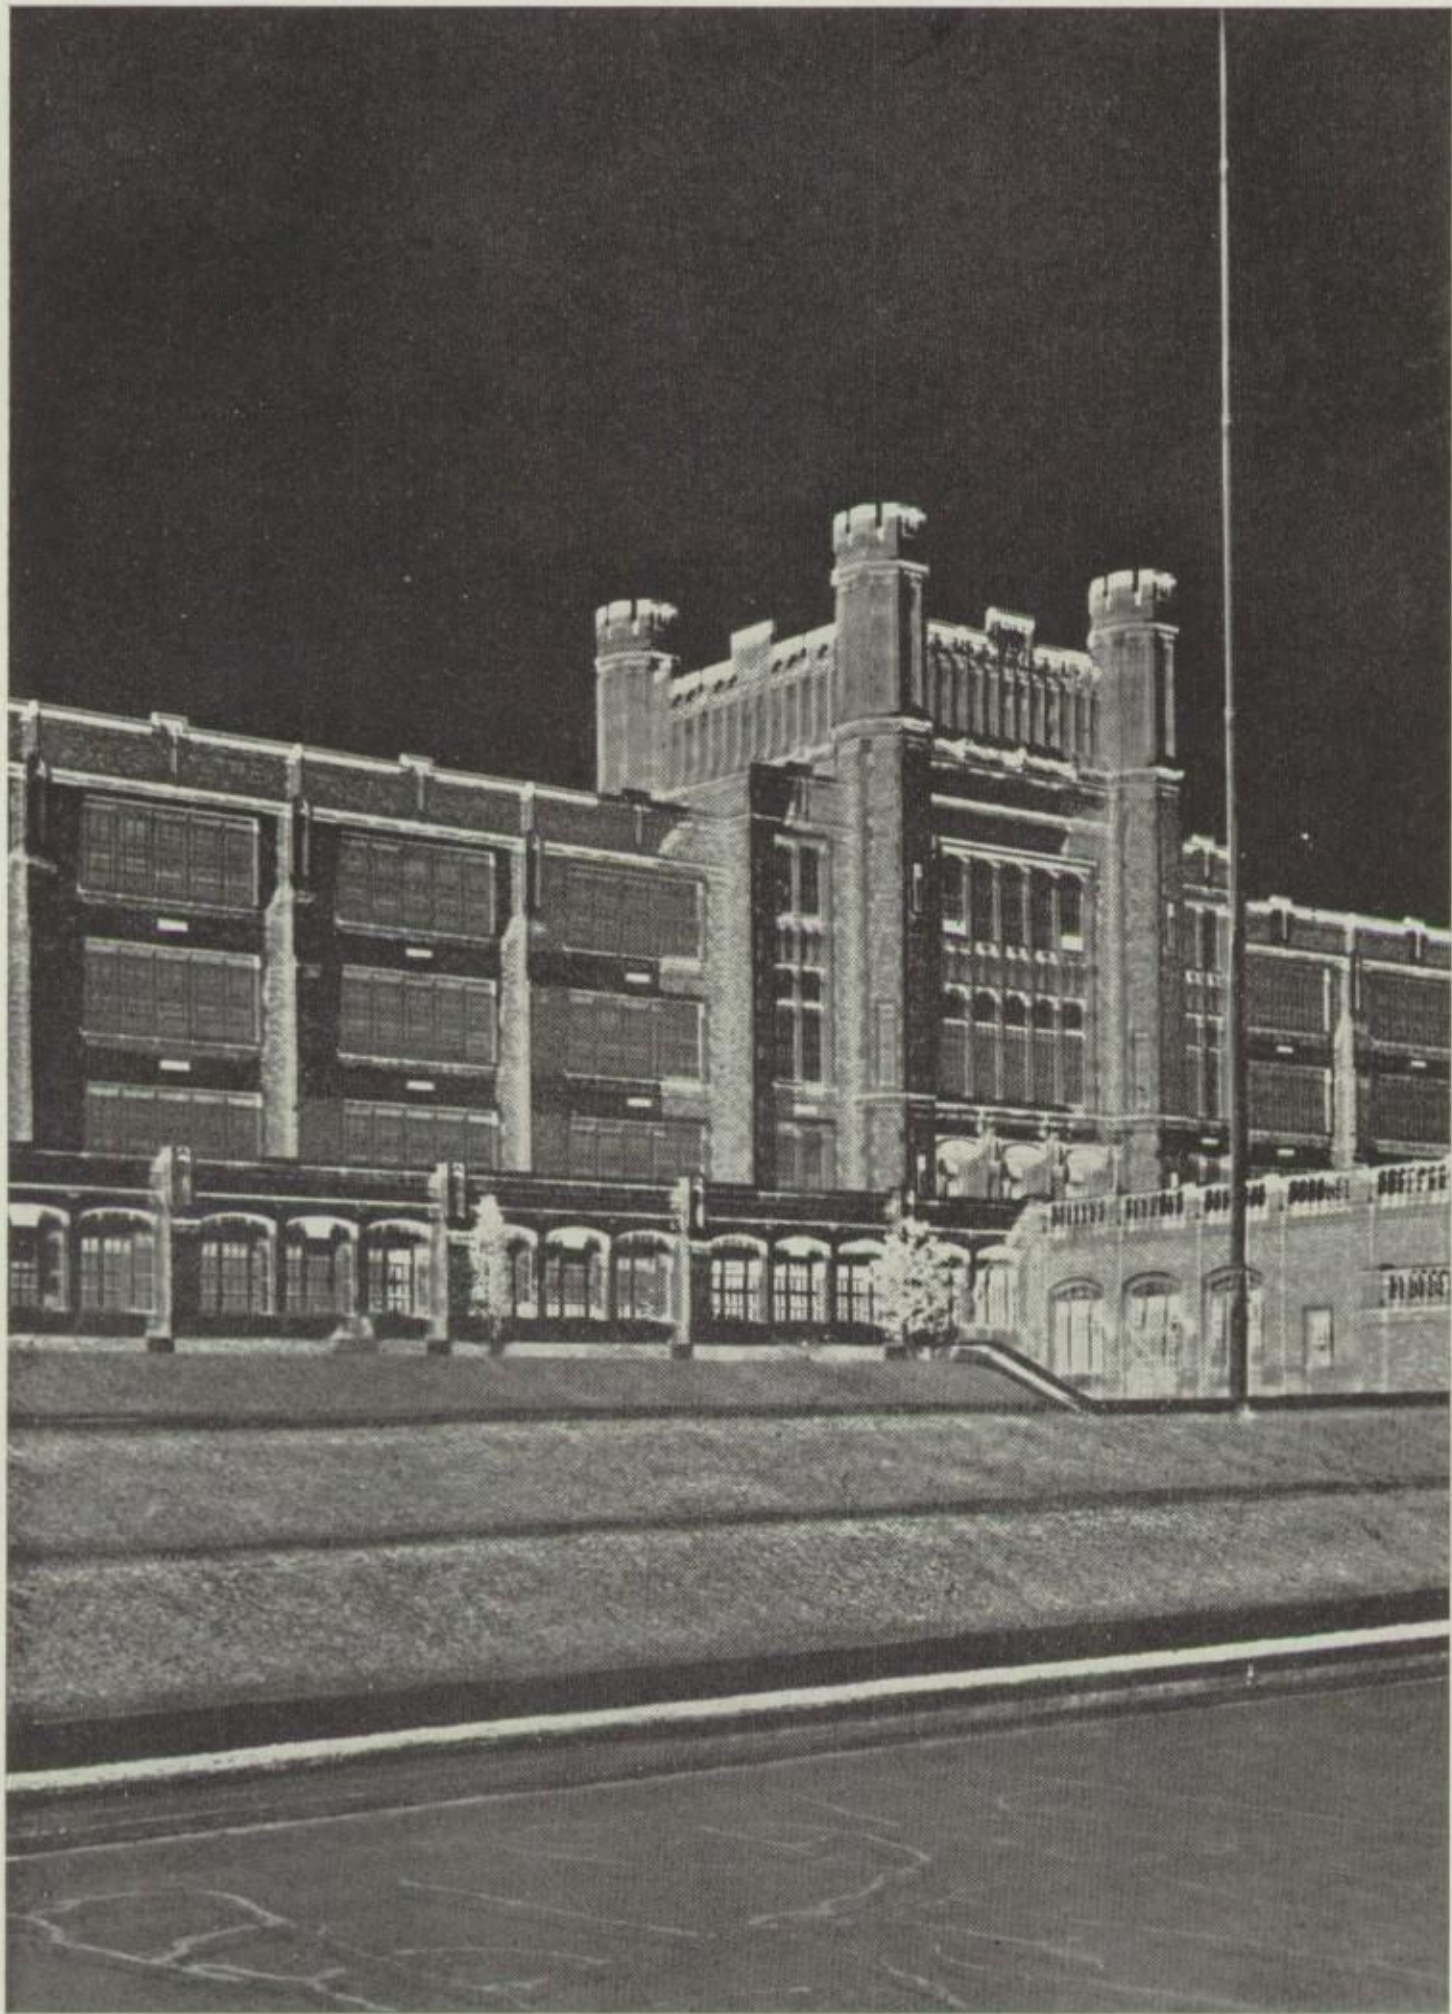

FAR IN THE WEST STANDS THE BLACK MOUNTAIN
AROUND WHICH OUR RACERS RAN AT NOON.
WHO IS THIS MAN RUNNING WITH ME,
THE SHADOW OF WHOSE HANDS I SEE?

(TRANSLATED BY FRANK RUSSELL)

SENIORS

THE INDIAN WORD KEYING THE SENIOR INFORMATION IS "BIDABAN," "IT BEGINS TO DAWN." THIS WORD SEEMS TO BE ESPECIALLY FITTING BECAUSE EACH SENIOR'S LIFE BEGINS TO DAWN AS HE STEPS FORTH INTO THE WORLD OF REALITY.

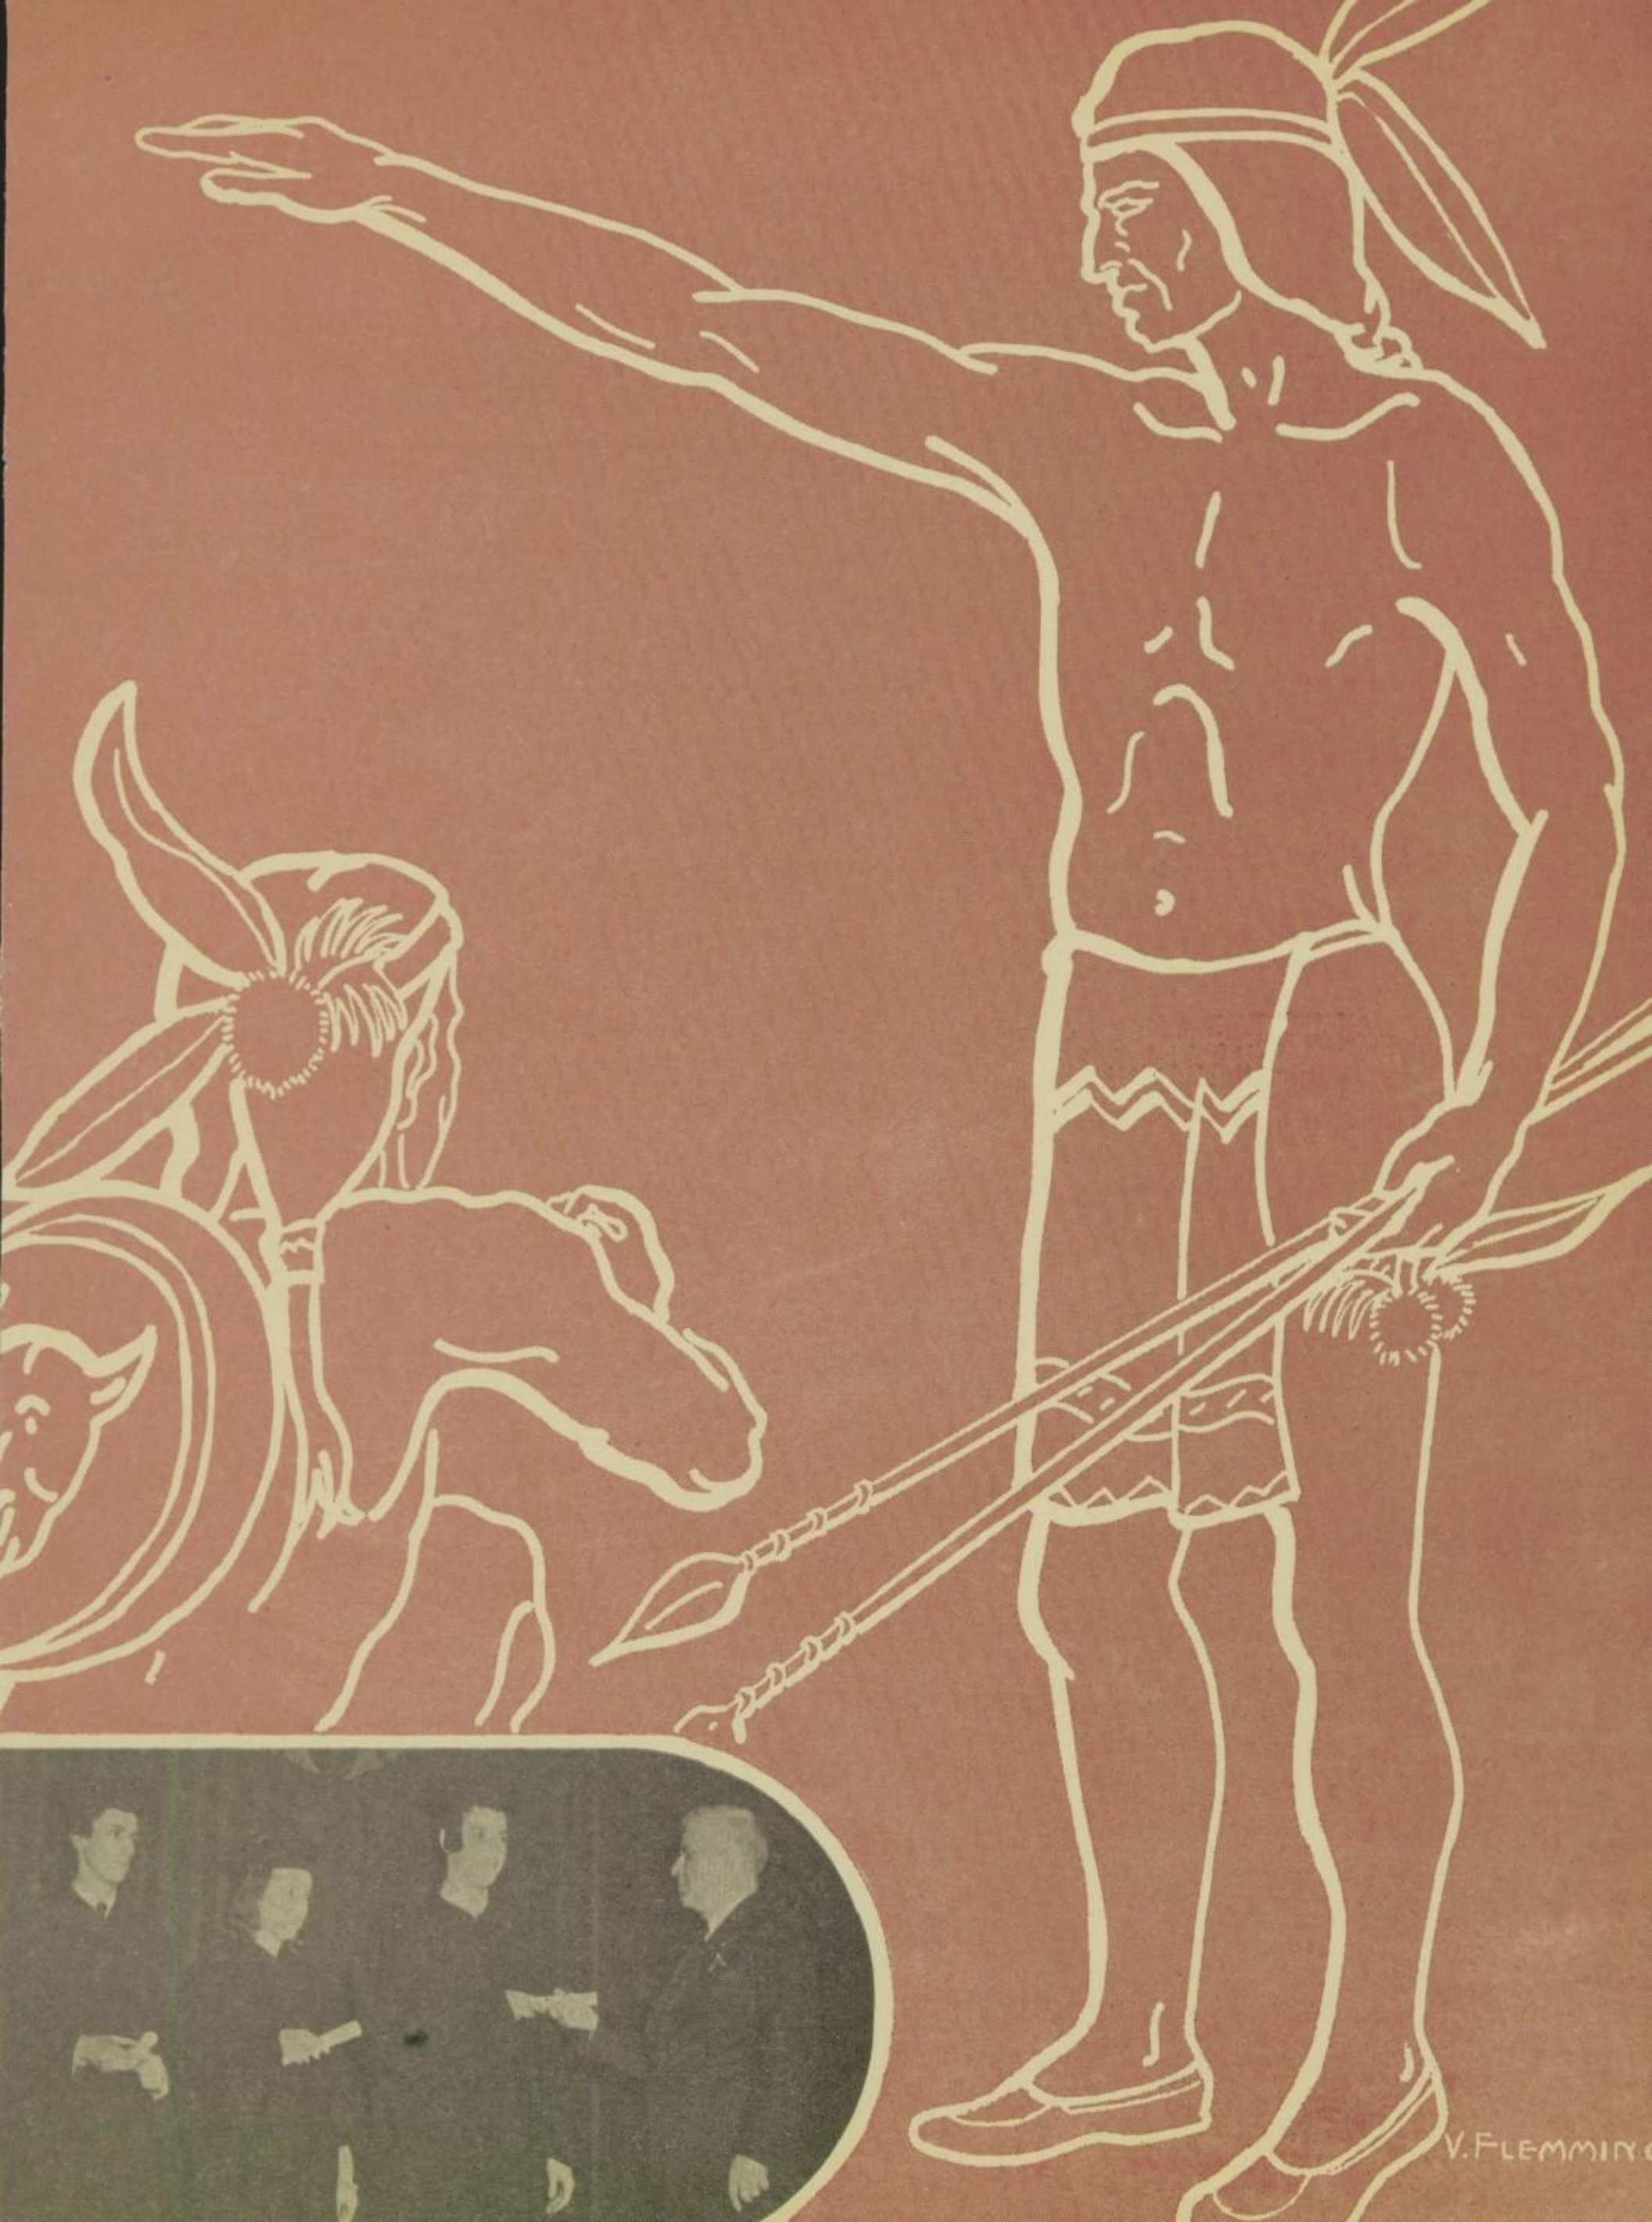

THE KEY USED IN THE WRITEUPS IS THIS:

B - BEQUEST TO CLASS OF '41
I - IRKS
D - DAYDREAM
A - AMBITION
B - BANALITY - FAVORITE EXPRESSION
A - ACTIVITIES
N - NICKNAME

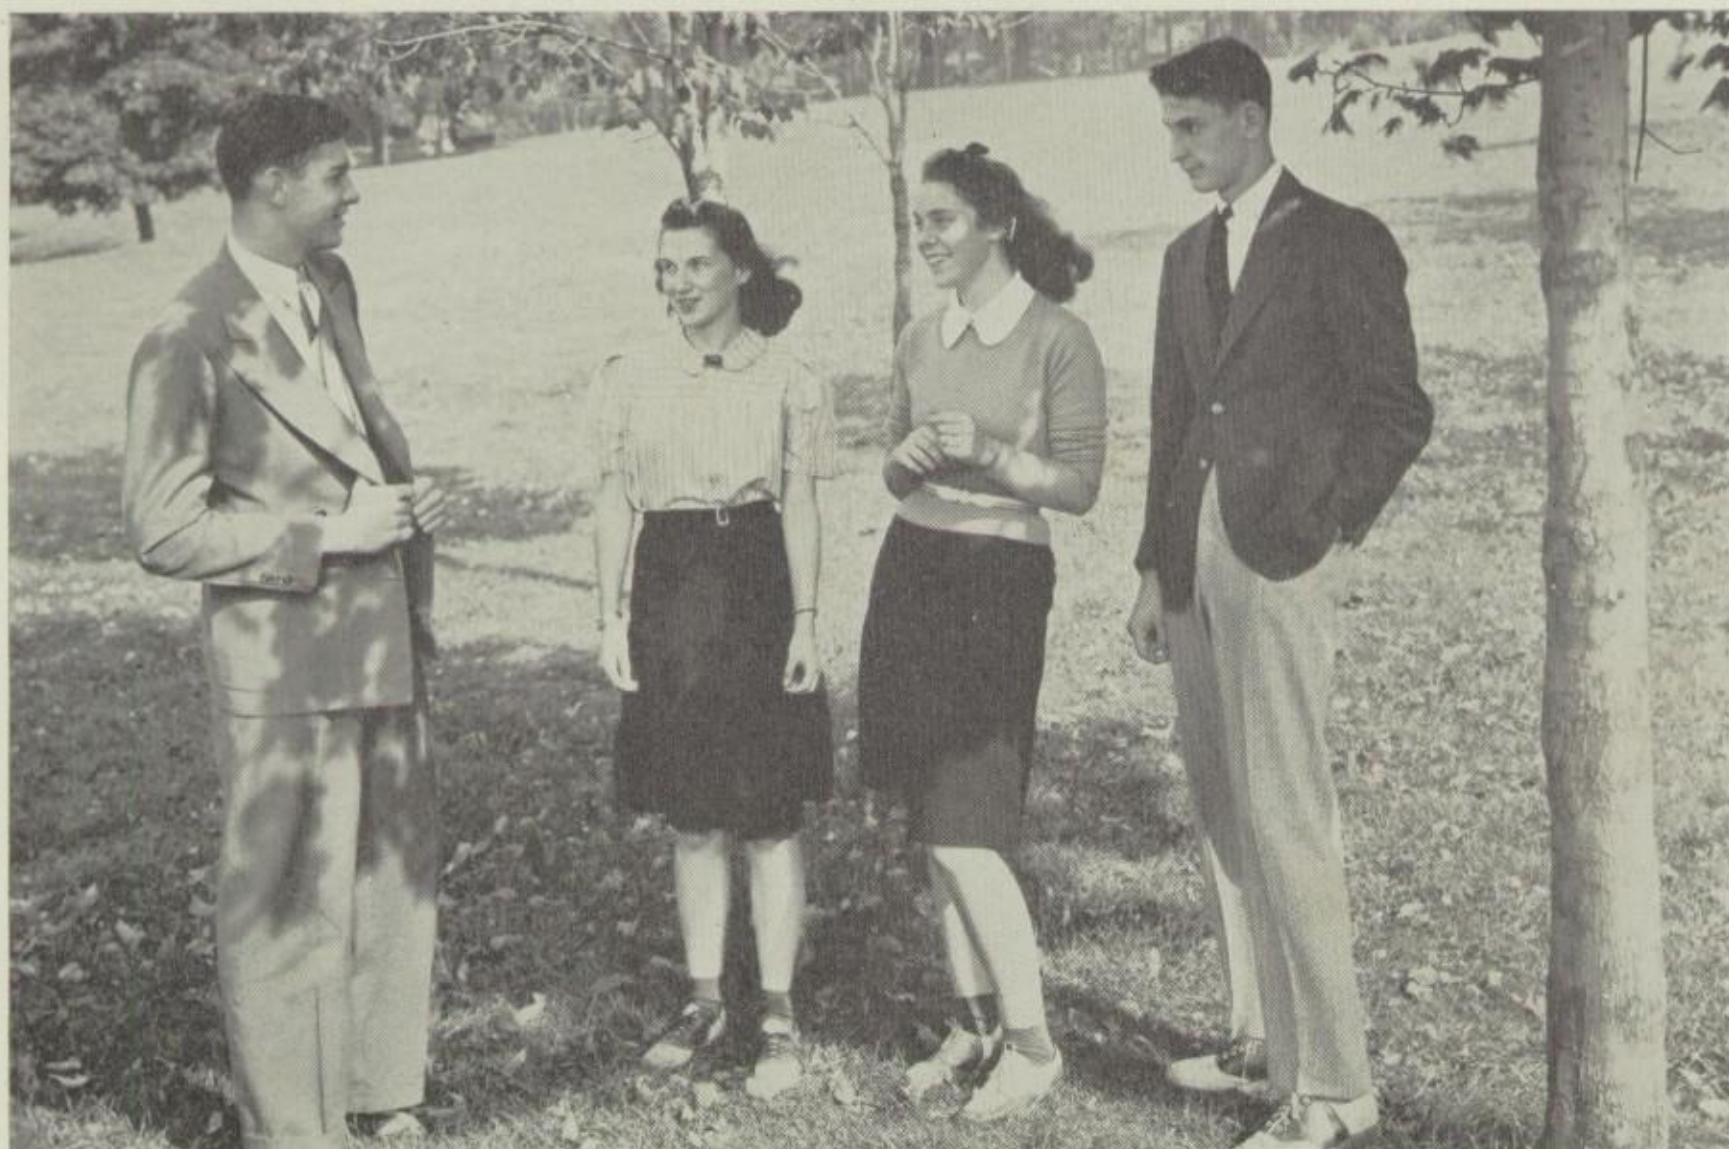

V. FLEMING

CLASS OFFICERS

Howard Guldin: This 6' 1" personification of modesty has been a football and basketball hero throughout high school and has been president of the '40 class in his junior and senior years. "Hops" weighs 170 pounds, has brown hair and blue eyes. His greatest interest is in being a good fellow.

Among his many duties are presiding at all class and executive committee meetings, appointing committees, and overseeing the planning and work of all class activities.

George Dracha: This 165 pound bundle of nonchalance was outstanding in basketball, baseball, and football during high school.

"Yacub" is 6' 1", has brown hair, and is very much interested in going away to college. This lanky boy, besides being nonchalant, is noted for his dry wit.

The most prominent duty of the vice-president is to assist the president.

Phyllis Carts: This petite girl, who typifies friendliness, has been secretary of the '40 class since tenth grade. She is an active member of the senior orchestra, marching band, and Girl Reserves.

"Phyl's" hair is brown and her eyes are hazel. She is 5' 4", weighs 110 pounds, and is interested in dancing, music, and swimming.

Her duties are to record minutes of all class meetings and handle all correspondence.

Addamenia Evans: This blonde-haired, blue-eyed symbol of pleasantness has been "baton twirler" for the marching band. She is president of her homeroom and a member of the Girl Reserves.

"Addie" is 5' 6" tall and weighs 126 pounds. She is interested in dancing and baton twirling. As treasurer, her duty is to handle all of the class funds and financial records.

IN MEMORIAM

DEPARTED FRIENDS

The dead friends live and always will;
Their presence hovers round us still.
It seems to me they come to share
Each joy or sorrow that we bear.
Among the living I can feel
The sweet departed spirits steal,
And whether it be weal or woe,
I walk with those I used to know.
I can recall them to my side
Whenever I am struggle-tired;
I've but to wish for them, and they
Come trooping gayly down the way,
And I can tell to them my grief
And from their presence find relief.
In sacred memories below
Still live the friends of long ago.

ARXALMA

Uh!! The seniors wanted a yearbook so the Arxalma Staff braves and maidens gathered for a council in Big Chief Master's tepee, (Room 124). Jerry, Lucille, Jean, Emma, Laura, and Betty huddled around one end of the council fire as they struggled with our Heap Big Seniors. Across from them sat Amelia and Betty deep in the thought of our illustrious chiefs. Squatting next to them were Jean, Lucy, Fred, Charles, and our two Virginias, squinting their very best as they tried to get a semblance of art from their well-known curliques. Farther back, Adeline and Jane were putting their heads together to decide which head belonged to which person in the club totems. Among the shadows sat Marjorie and Florence studying a calendar to discover when the special speaker appeared in the assembly tepee. Louise, Franklin, and Eleanor stood warming their hands by the fire as they waited for the basketball season to begin. Our editor, Carl, found himself a secluded corner in which he could enjoy his headaches while Phyllis, our business manager, struggling to keep our budget out of the red, wore herself to a frazzle.

After many moons and after we had chewed down the ends of more than a couple peace pipes (pencils to you), our staff finally published these "talking leaves."

Purpose: To prepare the script of the Graduation Pageant.

Every year it is traditional for Reading Senior High School to present a pageant as part of its senior activities. This pageant is written by a special class made up of seniors who are selected for their abilities in dramatic presentation and creative writing. This class, which writes under the supervision of Miss Runyeon, is divided into groups, each composing some special part of the pageant.

"Children of Liberty," the title of this year's pageant, illustrates Americanism through the lives of four prominent men, who in their own fields of endeavor contributed much to the American way of living. These men are Girard, the great benefactor; Foster, a well-known composer; Edison, inventor of the incandescent light; and Mathewson, king of baseball pitchers. Special incidents which best portray the characteristics of these men are shown in each episode.

The various committees are as follows:

Episode I—Miriam Hinden, Norma Troutman, Marion Silverman.
 Episode II—Sophia Stavropoulos, Elsie LeVan, Marjorie Geiss, Emma Hafer, Catharine Potts.
 Episode III—Nancy Clymer, Betty Swinehart, Florence Makowiecki.
 Episode IV—Wilmer Heffelfinger, Jacob Wagner, Morris Rosenthal.
 Epilogue and Prologue—John White, Vincent Ressler.

The "Red Pen" is the high school magazine. It is a printshop publication, the sole idea of which is to furnish an outlet for the literary talent discovered in the English classes. The main task of the staff of seniors is to edit the material which it receives.

This year, the "Red Pen", under the direction of Miss Mildred Runyeon, won first rating in the P. S. P. A. annual contest.

The staff has edited three—fall, winter, and spring—issues. The winter issue reverted to the format used when the "Red Pen" was young. (For it was then, back in '27, that the magazine was a small, six-inches-by-eleven-inches publication.) The magazine had been discontinued for a few years, and then, when it was revived in '39, it was new and different, being larger and less conservative in appearance. This present "Red Pen" staff of '40 decided to bring back the old style as a matter of tradition for the last two issues. The last issue, which contained a combination of spring and summer material, gave an appropriate farewell to the graduating Class of '40.

The general contents of each issue consisted of editorials, fiction, features, and poetry. This material was submitted by students of all the English classes and edited by the following committees:

I. O. U.

Thrills! Shivers of excitement ran up and down our spines as the blood-curdling laugh of the villain rose from the stage where the class of 1940 presented its play entitled "I. O. U.", or "Who'll Pay the Rent?" The play, which was written by Marion Silverman, Joseph Boscov, and Morris Rosenthal, was presented in part as an old-fashioned melodrama.

The mustache-twirling villain, a certain Mr. Chiselwit (Albert Schucker) started the plot rolling by demanding the money for the mortgage he held on the old homestead, which in this case happened to be a showboat. Neither Captain Jeremiah Blake (Ben Varishone) nor his well-meaning but hot-tempered spouse (Betty Gilden) had any idea of where to raise the money. Their daughter Joan (Geraldine Catalano) planned to present a melodrama, the cast of which included Norma Troutman, Miriam Hinden, Reid Gromis, William Beck, and Louise Boyer. This melodrama was given in order to save the showboat. Joan promised that if the show was not successful she would never see her sweetheart, Lee Chiselwit (Claude Dundore), again. Lee went against his father's will to aid Joan with this show and their efforts were highly successful. The mortgage was paid off, Joan and Lee were reunited, and the curtain rang down as the defeated Mr. Chiselwit stamped from the stage.

Splendid vocalizing by Geraldine Catalano and Claude Dundore provided still more thrills for the audience. The supporting cast, the singing choruses, and both the boys' and girls' dancing choruses coordinated beautifully to produce a well-rounded program.

Mr. Mohn was the capable director of the entire production while Arlene Kalbach and Robert Yost directed the dancing. Mr. Walker supervised the vocal music and Donald Moll and Joseph Boscov conducted the orchestra which was made up entirely of seniors.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

With a hubbub of excited chatter intermingled with an occasional yawn, our seniors boarded the train which would start them on the first lap of their class trip. Although it was only about six o'clock on the morning of June 1st, they all looked forward to the cruise around New York Harbor, then up the Hudson, and finally a stop off at West Point to see the cadets drill.

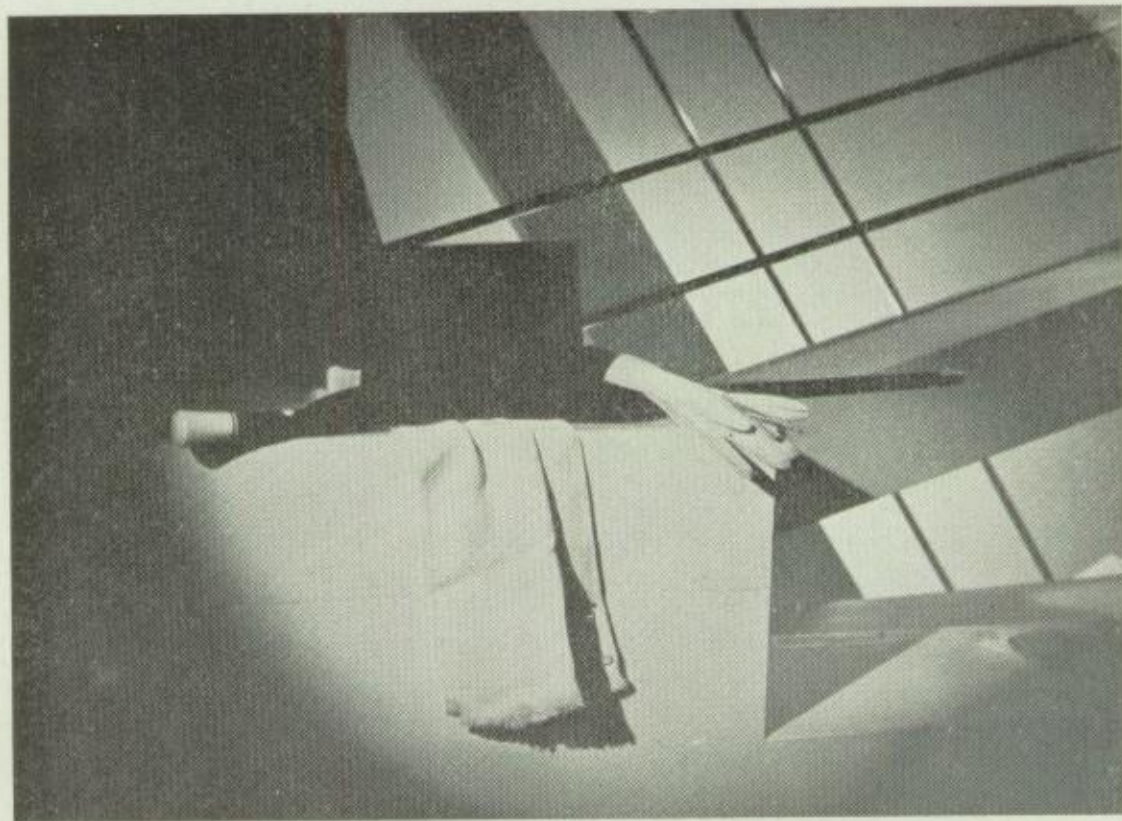

When they finally "invaded" the ship, they were pleasantly surprised by the size of it, for the boat was large enough to provide room for 3,000. The seniors quickly adapted themselves; and besides dancing, chatting, and promenading, they fortified themselves for the afternoon with a hearty luncheon. One of the features of the cruise was the loud speaker which enabled all to hear the information which was imparted concerning the sights.

Finally, after a long but exciting day, several hundred weary seniors regretfully arrived home about 11:15. As the last ones stepped from the train, many just realized that the trip had concluded another chapter of memories connected with the Castle on the Hill.

SENIOR PROM

May the seventeenth—prom nite—tropical atmosphere—fluffy evening dresses—igloos—cold bubbly punch—fragrant flowers—fluttering hearts—smooth lilting music—palm trees—white flannels—moonlight—all contributed to make the ninety forty senior prom a success.

The soothing music was rendered by Jack Heath's and Joe Lombardo's orchestras.

In this enchanting setting, an atmosphere of gaiety prevailed and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

This gala evening will long linger in the memories of the seniors whose "Life Begins With Forty."

ACTIVITIES • ACTIVITIES • ACTIVITIES

ORGANIZATIONS

All the organizations of the Reading Senior High School involve some form of service as their objective. The student may contribute his services voluntarily or he may be appointed by the faculty or his classmates to fill certain positions.

Membership in these various organizations depends upon individual leadership, cooperation, character, and willingness to cultivate these qualities. By participating in special activities, the pupil learns not only good fellowship and leadership but also good "followship."

Purpose: To promote a democratic school government.

M U S I C

Of all the organizations of Reading Senior High School, the music department is one of the most "notable." It has obtained state-wide recognition for musical excellence.

The instrumentalist finds great pleasure in joining one of the orchestras or bands. The A Cappella choir, choruses, and glee clubs offer splendid opportunity for the vocalists.

The splendid spirit of these organizations is shown in the fine programs rendered in assemblies and in the annual evening performance. Wherever there is music, there is an atmosphere of gaiety. We hope the pleasant strains of these organizations will always pervade the Castle halls.

Purpose: To provide good music for school functions.

Among several forms of the extra-curricular activities is that of clubs. These clubs are open to all students who voice a desire to enter them. The meetings of the majority of the clubs are held every Tuesday during school hours, but there are a few which participate in activities after school time. Each is sponsored by some faculty member.

This type of organization provides an opportunity for participation in a wide range of hobbies and the development of a variety of interests to satisfy almost all the Senior High School students. Besides arts and dramatics, athletics, sciences, services, home economics, and many other diversions constitute this activity.

SIXTH ROW—W. Plantholt, F. Wagner, G. O'Boyle, R. Brenner, W. Walb, H. Scheirer, Coach Smith, Coach Rock, Coach Stopper, Coach Harris, Coach Horine.

When the 1939 football season opened, Coaches Rock and Smith had on hand but four varsity performers from the previous season. With a team built around these stalwart warriors, the Rockets engaged and defeated such worthy opponents as Thomas Patton Trade, Allentown, York, Lancaster, and Lebanon while losing to William Penn, Bethlehem, Pottsville, and Easton.

KNIGHTS TRIM THOMAS PATTON TRADE (23-0)

Under gloomy skies, an inexperienced Reading High squad galloped to a victory over Thomas Patton Trade by the decisive score of 28 to 0.

Stan Askey, a rookie, started the 1939 Rockets on their scoring spree with a brilliant eighty-five yard gallop to paydirt. Kauffman's run through the line for eighteen yards resulted in the Knight's second touchdown. In the third quarter, a pass, Kase to Dracha, accounted for the third touchdown. The fourth R. H. S. tally came as the result of a run by Kase. Guldin converted all four extra points.

ROCKETS BOW TO WILLIAM PENN (19-12)

The green Reading High team went down to defeat at the hands of an alert William Penn team. Although the Knights outplayed the visitors, they were unable to conquer the Penn eleven.

Reading High's first touchdown came in the first quarter on a pass, Kauffman to Kase. In the second quarter, Dracha scored on a pass, while William Penn chalked up their first tally. In the last half, William Penn scored two touchdowns and an extra point. One of these touchdowns was the result of a ninety-nine yard gallop by Emanuels of William Penn.

In this game, Ernie Kauffman, sensational back, was injured and was lost to the squad for the remainder of the season.

READING TROUNCES ALLENTOWN (12-0)

Before a crowd of almost 8,000 people, the Reading Rockets scored a smashing 12 to 0 win over Allentown.

Scoring in the first and third quarters, the Knights showed their superiority that afternoon. A twenty yard pass from Missbach to Dracha resulted in the first six points. During the rest of the first quarter and the second quarter, R. H. S. kept the Canaries deep in their own territory with Missbach's punts. Midway through the third quarter, a pro-pass, Missbach to Guldin, resulted in the last touchdown.

Captain Szajna, Campbell, Guldin, and Ulrich played the entire game without substitution.

R. H. S. DEFEATED BY BETHLEHEM (12-0)

The gridiron warriors lost their second game of the season, to Bethlehem, before a record breaking crowd of 10,000 people at George Field.

Reading's only offensive gesture was four completed passes for forty-two yards, while Bethlehem amassed two hundred and sixty yards on ground plays. It was the old story of too much power. Husosky of Bethlehem scored both touchdowns, but the rest of the Bethlehem backfield ran just as well.

Mendelsohn and Daneker of Reading were the only men who broke through the Liberty line to throw the backfield boys for losses. Abraham and Kauffman were missed in this game.

KNIGHTS SMASH YORK (16-6)

The Rockets won their third game of the season with a 16 to 6 decision over York.

Scoring in the second, third, and fourth quarters, the Knights looked impressive in this, their fifth encounter. Climaxing an eighty yard march, Kase passed to Missbach for Reading's first touchdown. Guldin converted the extra point and in the early part of the third frame, booted a field goal from the thirteen yard stripe. In the last quarter, Kase ran eight yards for R. H. S.'s second touchdown.

Kase, Guldin, and Missbach looked good in this game.

ROCKETS TRIM LANCASTER (12-6)

The Red Knights won their second straight game by a score of 12 to 6 over Lancaster.

Early in the opening frame, Ollie Eyrich scored for the Rockets on a plunge from the one foot line. In the opening minutes of the last quarter, Askey scored for Reading on a plunge from the six inch line. Lancaster's lone score came in the last quarter on an end run.

Dracha, Guldin, Kase, Muthard, and Missbach played the entire game without substitution.

READING DEFEATS LEBANON (14-7)

The Rockets defeated Lebanon 14 to 7, winning their third straight game.

Lebanon scored in the second quarter to take a 7 to 0 lead. In the early minutes of the third quarter, Mendelsohn broke through to block a Lebanon kick on the Cedars' five yard line. Guldin grabbed the ball and stepped over for Reading's first touchdown. In the last frame, a thirty-five yard pass, Missbach to Dracha, resulted in the winning touchdown. Randy Hummel, a newly-discovered place-kicker, converted both of Reading's extra points.

Mendelsohn, Guldin, and Dracha flashed in this fray.

R. H. S. LOSES TO EASTON (12-0)

The Red Knights lost their third game to a strong Easton team, the score being 12 to 0.

Reading looked impressive against Easton which was rated to win by a larger margin. R. H. S. held the strong Easton team to a scoreless tie during the first half. In the second half, when Abraham was taken out of the game with an injury, the Rocket's defense collapsed. It was at this time that the Easton team pushed over their first touchdown. Easton again scored in the last frame on an intercepted pass.

Abraham was missed during the last half. Had he been in the game, a different story might have been told.

KNIGHTS DEFEATED BY POTTSVILLE (26-7)

Closing a moderately successful season before a crowd of 11,000 people, the Reading High football team lost their fourth game of the season. Pottsville was the victor by a score of 26 to 7. Reading's lone touchdown came in the last quarter on a pass to Dracha. Pottsville scored seven points in the second quarter and nineteen in the last. It was just a situation of too much of Pottsville's Evans and English. Reading held them well until the last quarter when Pottsville went wild.

With fourteen seniors playing their last game, the Rockets completed a .555 season.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Reading High's J. V. Knights turned in a rather mediocre season. Handicapped by their lack of weight, the "Baby" Rockets posted only one win with two losses and two ties against heavier opponents. They defeated Shillington J. V., tied Lancaster J. V. and Lebanon J. V., and lost to Allentown J. V. twice. The gridgers, instructed by Coaches Harris and Horine, show great promise of becoming future grid luminaries.

Some outstanding stars of the season were Price, Sandman, Sauders, and Palaferro. They sparked the team on offense and defense.

The 1940 Reading High basketball team completed a good season under Coach Smith. The Red and Black quintet won twelve of nineteen encounters and placed second in the Central Pennsylvania League.

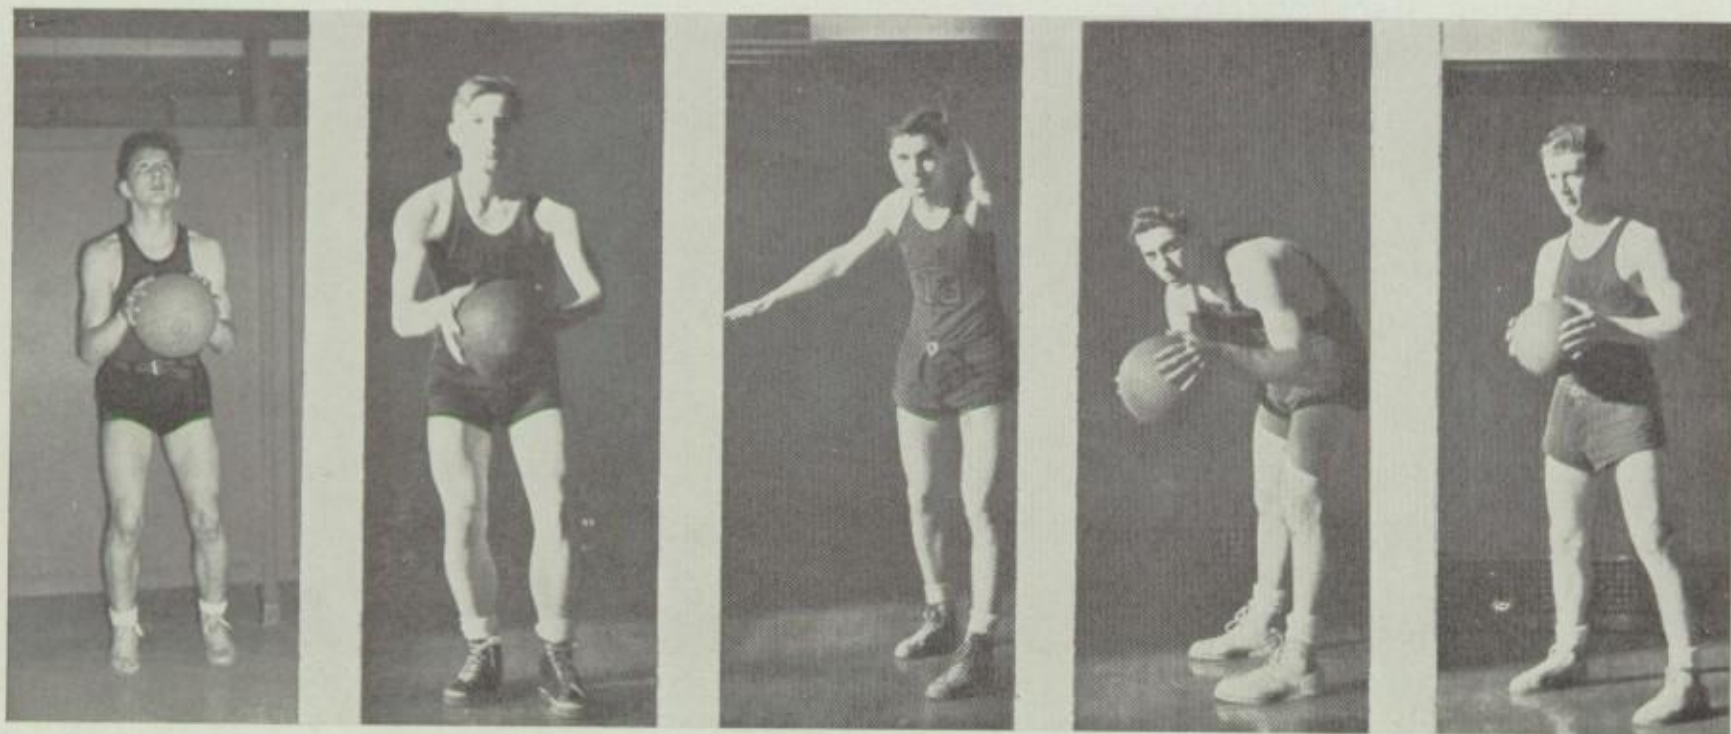

The Knights opened the season with a 42 to 20 win over Thomas Patton Trade. Captain Guldin was high scorer with 11 points. In the second game, the Red Raiders suffered a 23 to 17 setback at the hands of Allentown. Guldin again led the scorers. Szajna and Lewis, with 6 points each, turned the Reading High quintet's third game into a 23-21 victory. The hapless victims were from Bethlehem High.

The Red and Black team opened the league with a victory over John Harris. Guensch burned up the basket with 12 points, while the rest of the team combined to score 44 points against John Harris' 36. The Knights won their second league game in an overtime fracas with York. The score was 33-31, with Captain Guldin accounting for 10 of the local team's points. Lewis led the scoring as the Red Raiders won their third league encounter at the expense of William Penn. The final score was 38 to 23.

After winning three successive league games, Reading succumbed to Lebanon. The final score read 31-27. The Red and Black quintet came back to take the next game from Steelton, 32-28. Missbach aided the team with 12 points. Kurowski and Szajna each tallied 8 points as the Knights lost a non-league fray to Norristown, 38 to 28.

Reading's home game against Lancaster was the most exciting game of the season. The game was won in the last minute on a charity throw by Lewis, 23-22. Missbach ran up 21 points as the Knights won over John Harris by the score of 53 to 28. The Red Raiders then won their third successive league game. This one was against York. Kurowski rang up 13 points to aid the Reading High team in a 41 to 20 victory over York.

Kurowski and Guldin divided 24 points to aid Reading in defeating William Penn 36-32. The Red and Black quintet was sitting on top of the league when they invaded Lebanon only to drop a 30-22 verdict. With Missbach and Szajna scoring 14 and 12 points respectively, the Red Knights got back in the win column by defeating Steelton 40 to 26.

At this point in the competition, Reading took a turn for the worse. Three successive games and a chance to play off for the league championship were lost. The first of these defeats was at the hands of Bethlehem. The score was 30 to 22 with Missbach leading the Red Knight scorers. The second game, a league encounter with Lancaster, cost the Red Raiders their tie for the first place. Szajna's 10 points aided the Red and Black team. The final score stood at 33-28 against them. The Red Knights then lost their return engagement with Allentown. The Canaries were on the long end of a 39 to 30 score. The last game of the season, with Pottsville, resulted in a win. Szajna scored 7 points, while the rest of the team helped to squeeze out a 25 to 23 win.

With the Pottsville game, the Reading High team closed its 1940 season. Winning twelve of nineteen games, the Knights placed second in the Central Pennsylvania League. The varsity squad was composed of Hops Guldin, Nipper Missbach, John Szajna, Ramey Kurowski, Russel Guensch, Myer Lewis, and Dick Swope with Harrison Stump and Randy Hummel turning in good performances as substitutes. Nipper Missbach placed fourth among the league scorers. The Red Raiders piled up 604 points (an average of better than 31 per game) against 534 (an average of 28 points per game) for their opponents.

JAYVEE BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity team compiled a better record than the varsity this year. Winning seventeen contests and losing three, the Baby Knights won the Central Pennsylvania Junior Varsity Basketball League. After completing the regular season in a tie for first place, the Reading High Jayvees won a playoff contest from Lebanon. The RHS Jayvees won their first thirteen games. They then dropped a game to Lebanon which tied them for first place. The Baby Raiders then exchanged wins and losses, winding up with the important tie-breaking play-off against Lebanon.

Some of the stellar stars of the season were Chet Stankiewicz, Jimmy Bunn, Bobby Harbach, Joe Szymanski, Bob Maysich. Next season, these players will probably carry the Red and Black varsity banner.

BASEBALL

With about half of last year's championship team left over and many enthusiastic rookies, Coaches Smith and Rock set about to produce a cooperative team which will gain new honors on the baseball diamond for Reading High.

In March, many ambitious pitchers and catchers began limbering up their arms in the gym. From this lot, the coaches obtained several promising hurlers. Lefty Angstadt, Bobby Erwin, and Johnny Roslin are sure starters. On the bases are Nipper Missbach at first, Jimmy Bunn at second, and Johnny Szajna on the hot corner. Kenny Lascomb completes the infield at shortstop. Patrolling the field are Joe Syzmanski in right, Jerky Kozlowski in center and Ernie Kauffman in left. Bruce Ohlinger keeps an eye on things from behind the plate.

To date three games have been played and Reading High has emerged victorious in all three. These events indicate a successful season ahead.

TRACK

The 1940 Reading High track team, coached by Mr. Jacobs and Mr. Boyles, was to open its season on Saturday, April 27 at the annual Penn Relays in Philadelphia. The relay team composed of Dick Swope, Ollie Eyrich, Johnny Yocum, Tulio Giordano, and Bill Willis was disqualified for getting on the track late.

Prospects for the 1940 track season looked good as about seventy hopefuls limbered up at George Field in preparation for the first meet with Hill School at Pottstown on May 2. The Red and Black squad faced a schedule similar to last year's campaign, engaging in eight meets climaxed by the annual Memorial Day Meet at George Field.

Outstanding candidates for the weight events were Gene Mendelsohn and Chicks Brenner. Stan Askey shone in broad-jumping and Dick Swope looked good as a pole vaulter. On the whole the squad shaped up well.

CROSS-COUNTRY

In winning the Annual Eastern Pennsylvania Scholastic Cross-Country Meet at Pottsville, the Reading High cross-country squad ended another successful season. This is the fourth consecutive trophy that the team has won. Losing only one contest while winning six, the hill-and-dalers compiled a winning percentage of .857. Some outstanding stars of the season were Markley, Yocum, Smith, Troxelle, and Vogel.

The lone setback was at the hands of Lansford by the score of 23 to 32.

Coach Boyles and Coach Jacobs are to be congratulated on turning out another winning squad.

BOYS' SOCCER

The Red and Black soccer team completed one of their most successful seasons, winning five games and losing three. Some of the outstanding players were Shera, Bouchet, Kline, and Swope.

The Red Knights opened their season against the state champs from Bethlehem with a loss. Reading defeated Muhlenberg next. After this battle, the R.H.S. soccer men lost another game to Bethlehem. The team then defeated Wyomissing. In the next two games, Reading beat Lancaster and Mohnton. The Red Knights next lost to a strong Girard team, and finished the season with a win against Lancaster.

The Reading Hi team should have a good season next year as they lose only three men by graduation. The successful team was coached by Mr. Leroy Jones.

TENNIS

The 1940 tennis team was probably the best in the history of Reading High. Stan Granger, Johnny Dwight, and Bob Harbach were Reading High's mainstays. Granger and Dwight are lost by graduation.

TABLE TENNIS

This year Reading High had two teams in two local table tennis leagues. Jim Hertwig and Carl DeGour were the shining lights of the team. Both will be on the team next year as they are underclassmen.

SWIMMING

After Reading High had gone four years without a swimming team, we finally got back into competition this year. The team had a fair record, losing four meets, winning one, and placing third in another. While defeating Pottstown and placing third in the District 3 P. I. A. A. meet, the Raiders lost to Allentown twice, Lancaster, and Pottstown. The Red Knights' failure to capture a single first in diving and few first places in the relays caused most of the defeats. The losses may also be explained by the fact that this is the first year of competition for the Reading High performers.

Some of the outstanding swimmers were Bauman, Smythe, Bott, Moll, and Stewart. Coach Davis is to be congratulated on turning out as fine a team as he did.

GOLF

After several weeks of intensive practice, the Reading High golf team opened their season on April 24 against F. and M. Academy at Lancaster. Reading's first match against Kutztown was rained out.

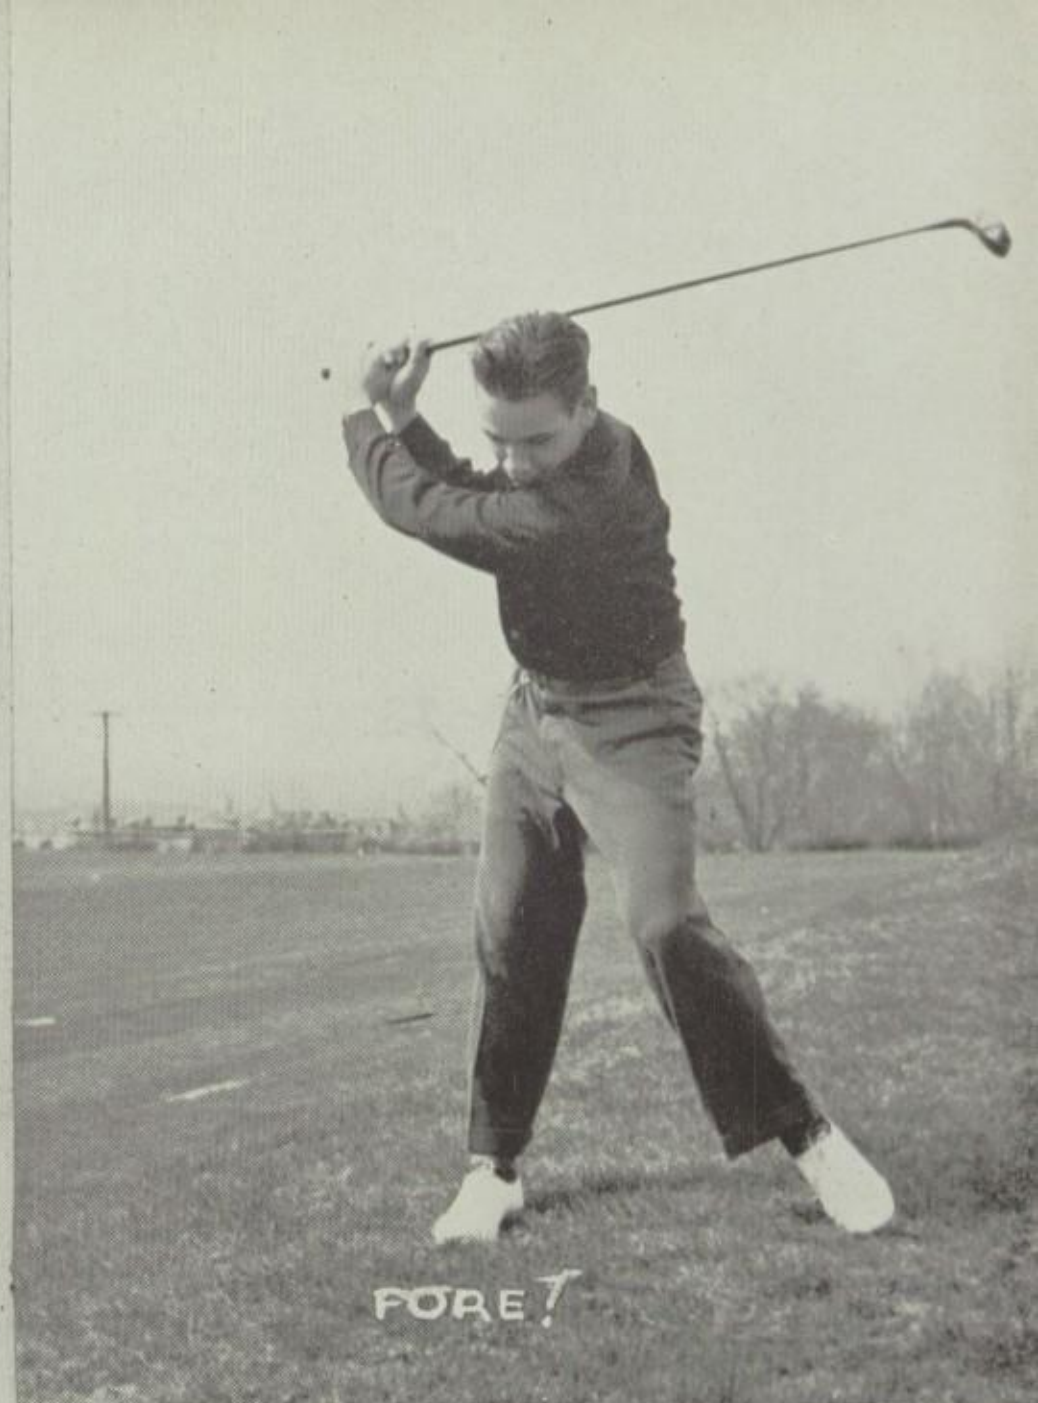

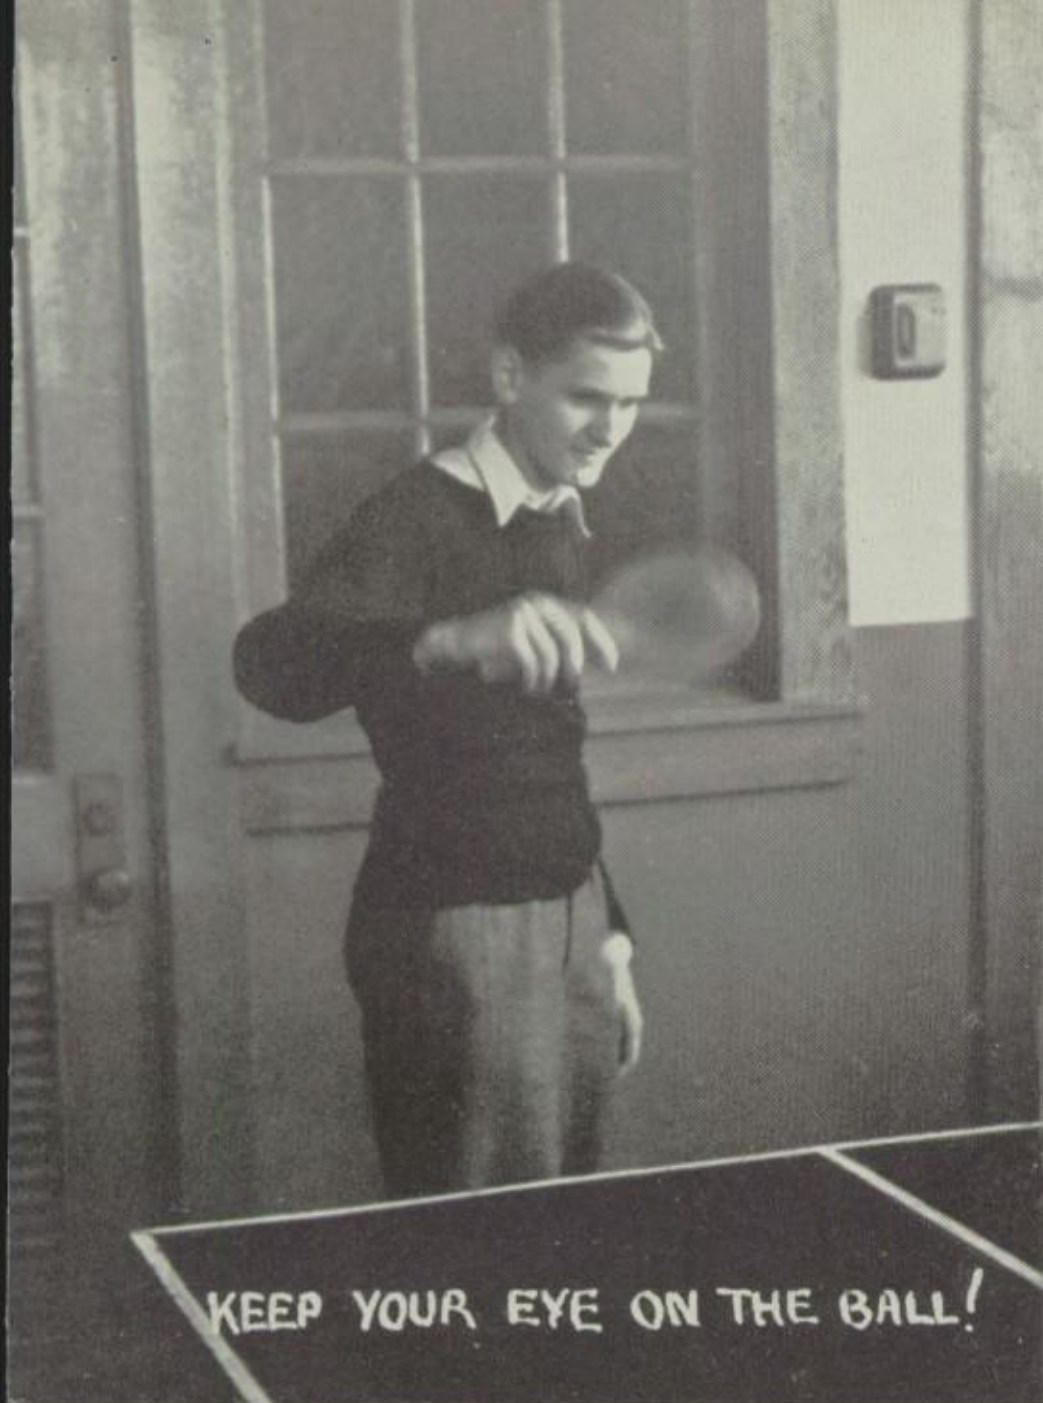

At the present time, the R. H. S. varsity golf squad led by Johnny Markel is composed of Markel, Franco, Reber, Alexander, Yocum, Dietrich, Krug, and Fascone. Coach Brucher feels that this team will bring back golf honors to Reading High.

The squad at present is composed entirely of tenth and eleventh grade students. This gives prospect of a great team next year. The number one man on the team, Johnny Markel, is the State P. I. A. A. champion and is, therefore, especially qualified to lead the Reading High team.

CHEERLEADERS

Ray-y-, cheerleaders! Ray, ray, cheerleaders. These peppy and stalwart leaders have cheered for everyone else throughout the year and so we're taking this opportunity to cheer them. We're praising them for their effervescence, loyalty, sportsmanship, cooperation, and dependability.

Under Mr. Cardin's capable direction, this spontaneous octet mastered cheerleading technique. How proud we felt watching their agile movements during the games! How proud we were of those girls who helped to make the second successful squad to include studettes.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

Because of the fact that those who wish to participate in after-school sports are required to take physical examination and a tuberculin test, many of the hockey fans did not turn out for this sport. The disadvantage of having such a small turn-out was greatly reduced by having all the girls meet regularly.

The girls elected Belle Harvey manager of the hockey league and Julia Tacyn assistant manager. Because there were not enough present to form class teams, two teams were organized with girls from the various classes on each team. Julia Tacyn was elected captain of the Blue team, while Belle Harvey was captain of the White team.

In the league, the Blue team rose as victors, winning two of the three games played. Jean Shilling and Julia Tacyn, both center forwards, scored the goals for their respective teams. All the girls showed wonderful sportsmanship and interest in the game, and many seemed reluctant to have another hockey season come to an end.

The instructor of the hockey teams was Miss McHose.

GIRLS' SOCCER

A group of thirty-three girls turned out for after-school soccer. In this group there were thirteen seniors, eleven juniors, and nine sophomores.

The girls elected Mildred Angstadt manager and Anna Twardowski assistant manager. Each class had its own team. Grace Montz, Shirley Haggerty, and Ruth Kemmerer were elected captains of the twelfth, eleventh, and tenth grade teams, respectively.

After a few practices, teams were organized and the girls entered wholeheartedly into the preliminary league. The league was won by the twelfth grade team. At the end of the final league, there was a tie between the eleventh and twelfth grade teams; the playoff resulted in a junior triumph. Shirley Rightmyer scored the goal which gave the juniors the championship.

The thirty-three girls, under the coaching of Miss Wadsworth, were awarded their well-earned points.

BASKETBALL

The 1939-1940 girls' basketball season opened with a large number of girls reporting. Because of the great turnout, varsity and junior varsity teams were formed for the twelfth, eleventh, and tenth grades respectively. Anna Twardowski was elected student manager for the season. Jane Gable, Mildred Angstadt, Irene Chicowicz, and Jane Whitehead were chosen captains for the twelfth and eleventh grades.

The Juniors won the Interclass League with Ruth Strassner as their leading scorer.

The season, although short, was very successful.

FOURTH ROW—J. Tacyn, M. Geiss, K. Thompson, J. Hilbert, S. Haggerty, S. Barwinski, J. Hetrick.

FIFTH ROW—N. Williams, K. Goff, I. Jeager, E. Stevens, B. Manegold, I. Chicowicz, F. Druzba.

SIXTH ROW—N. Hubler, M. Hagan, D. Ludwig, F. Bucks, A. Twardowski, K. Rzesutk, M. Breans, J. Conner, L. Einsel, J. Hawkins.

VOLLEYBALL

A squad of sixty-nine girls reported for volleyball practice in the latter part of April. Mary Hogan, whom the girls elected manager, did much for the success of the season. Irene Chickowicz was elected her assistant.

After several practices, the girls formed teams and elected captains. The Preliminary League consisted of six teams.

The Final League was very successful because of the fine, clean, competitive spirit which pervaded the entire group.

The girls, under Miss McHose's direction, ended a very satisfactory season.

BASEBALL

Sponsor: MISS NICELY

FRONT ROW—(left to right) A. Mack, M. Rickolt, R. Strasser, R. Gaul.

SECOND ROW—G. Montz, E. Barr, A. Blessing, P. Knauer, F. Dalack, M. Pawling, M. Gieringer.

THIRD ROW—F. Young, J. Hilbert, S. Schaeffer, P. Rothenberger, C. Matheson.

FOURTH ROW—M. Horan, V. Young, O. Rohrbach, A. Kopala, S. Gay.

FIFTH ROW—V. Gehret, N. Ganter, B. Harvey, N. Leas, M. Moyer.

SIXTH ROW—M. Blessing, A. Barto, C. Cantos, L. Florczak, M. Mackowiak.

SEVENTH ROW—R. Kemmerer, W. Albright, C. Morawski, J. Gable, M. Angstadt, H. Sokol.

BASEBALL

The fact that the baseball season did not get underway until early May can be attributed to the rainy weather. Despite this handicap, fifty-eight enthusiastic girls reported for practice.

Under the capable management of Althea Mack and her assistant, Mildred Angstadt, the season proved to be a great success.

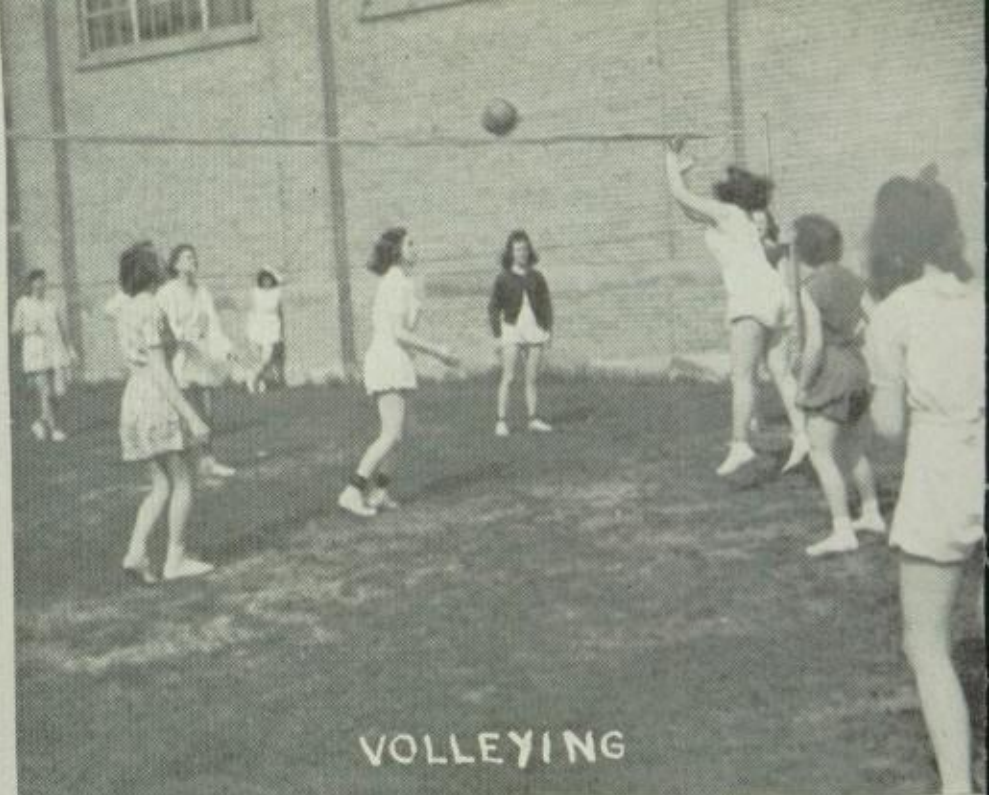

In the Preliminary League, each class had one team. Mary Ellen Rickolt, Carolyn Stamm, and Ruth Gaul were elected captains of the twelfth, eleventh, and tenth grade teams respectively.

These same teams, at the conclusion of the Preliminary League, entered the Final League which determined the champions.

SECOND ROW—A. Lutz, F. Zdradzinska, E. Edmond, R. Bomberger, J. Klopp, J. Schmehl, M. Werts, L. Miller.

THIRD ROW—M. Kaufmann, A. O'Donnell, B. Harvey, J. Adams, A. Twardowski, B. Chivinsky, D. Culp, V. Young, V. Scaramella.

SWIMMING

Splash! Splash! This familiar sound was heard every Thursday afternoon at 4:15 at the Y. W. C. A. The reason was that Miss Wadsworth was instructing the aquatic-minded girls of Reading High in the art of swimming. The group composed of fifty girls.

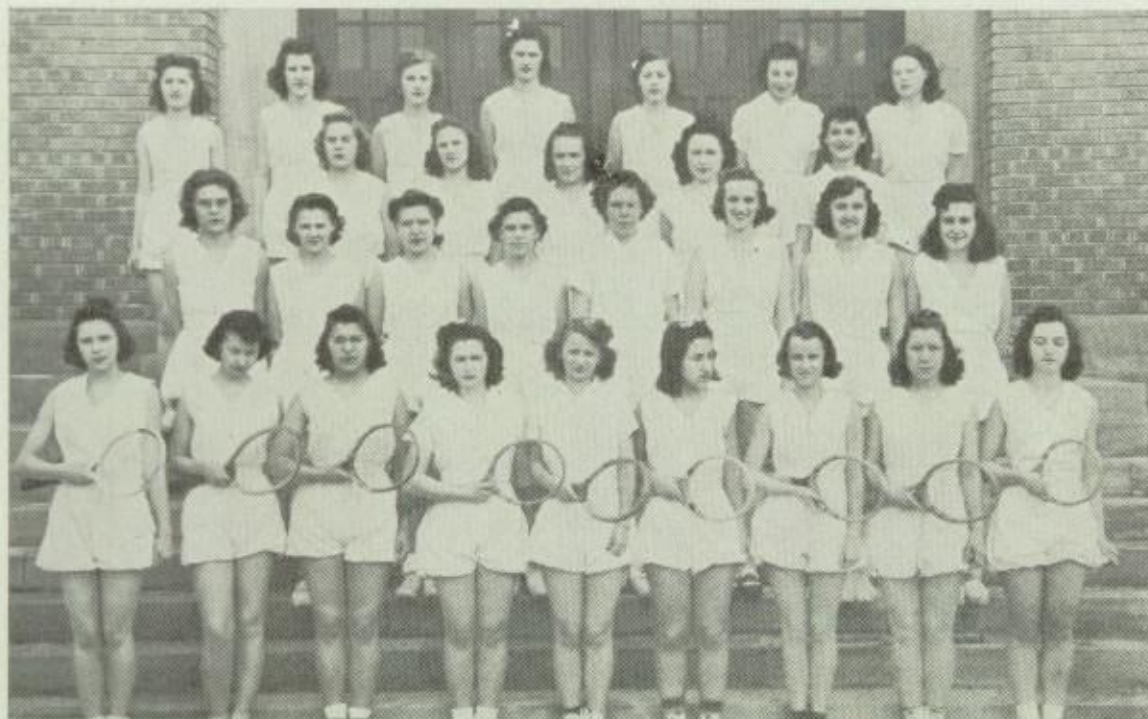

The mermaids were divided into three groups according to ability: beginners, intermediates, and advanced. Special achievement tests for each group were given at the end of six lessons. The beginners' test included floating on face for ten seconds, floating on back for one minute, changing body position—back and front, swimming twenty yards in good form, and performing a plain dive from side of pool—then swimming to the other side.

To pass the intermediate test, the girls had to swim the crawl in good form for twenty yards; swim backstroke in good form for twenty yards; perform plain front or racing dive; dive in, swim, float, and tread water without touching a support; and administer artificial respiration for three minutes.

The advanced group had more difficult tests to pass. They had to swim the crawl for eighty yards; swim racing backstrokes in good form; perform a plain front and an optional dive; dive from the surface recovering an object three times, carry a tired swimmer thirty feet preceded by a thirty-foot swim; float, tread, or swim for ten minutes without touching a support; and administer artificial respiration for three minutes.

Unlike the previous year, the girls enjoyed two Play Days. The first in December, the second in March. A varied sport program including a balloon game, Chinese tag, call ball, a cork race and plunge was featured. At the conclusion of this enjoyable program, the members participated in a plunge period.

TENNIS

FRONT ROW—(left to right) A. Albright, D. Ehrgood, V. Scaramella, S. Boscov, N. Entzminger, N. Ash, N. Holder, B. Long, M. Yesonochin.

SECOND ROW—J. Klopp, F. Zdradzinska, P. Rothenberger, V. Genret, K. Ailes, L. Buck, M. Gieringer, M. Sulman.

THIRD ROW—M. Koffke, V. Griesemer, S. Schaeffer, M. McInroy, G. Carroll.

FOURTH ROW—K. Rzesutek, A. Twardowski, J. Barto, C. Barth, K. Jensen, C. Achenbach, H. Abicht.

TENNIS

Because of unfavorable weather conditions, sixty tennis enthusiasts were delayed in starting their chosen activity.

The tennis fans were divided into two groups—advanced and beginners. The beginners, who conducted a round-robin tournament, were taught the fundamentals of serving, scoring, and form; while the advanced girls, who entered an elimination tournament, received coaching for improving their technique.

BOWLING

Bowling, the newest of the minor sports, attracted approximately thirty-eight girls this year. The girls met every Tuesday at the Reading Company Y. M. C. A. at which time they enjoyed their bowling.

The girls elected Cecelia Morawski as manager, and Dorothy Kreiser as her assistant. A few of the high scorers were Kathryn Dietz, Catherine Contos, Mary Werts, Cecelia Morawski, and Nelda Lease.

SECOND ROW—A. Mack, E. Moyer, F. Hetrich, J. Klopp, J. Flatt, M. Gaenzle, O. Rohrbach, C. Stamm, R. Pennypacker.

BADMINTON

The badminton season opened with sixteen girls reporting. Carolyn Stamm, an eleventh grader, copped the championship in the elimination tournament, while Eleanor Moyer was runner-up.

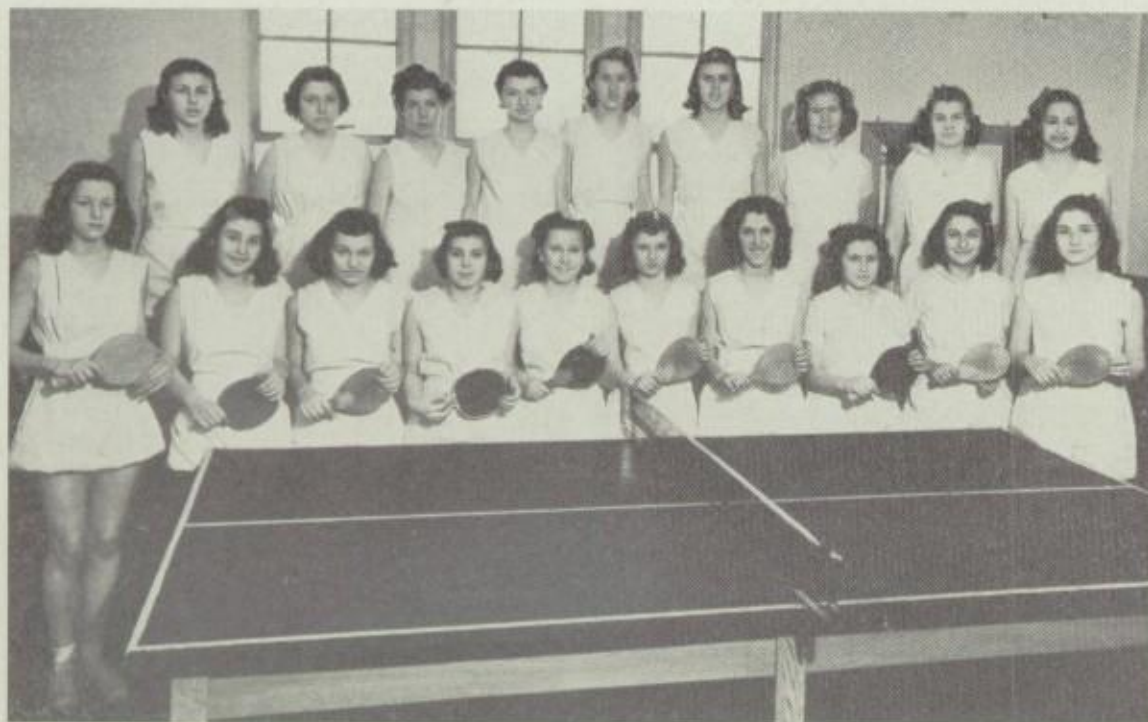

The girls, under the capable guidance of Miss Nicely, ended a successful tournament.

TABLE TENNIS

Table tennis, one of Reading High's sports, proved to be a great attraction to the girls this year.

All the girls in this group participated in a ladder tournament. Edith Reddig's fine "paddling" enabled her to win the championship while Charlotte Buchman took second place honors.

The tournament was under the supervision of Miss McHose.

When a boy, I heard many stories of conflicts between the Indians and the early settlers in our neighborhood. These stories came to me from the descendants of the men who were engaged in the conflicts. Nearly all of these stories involved the use of guns. The stories seemed very real to me because of the relative nearness in point of time and distance. The Indians I saw in the circus supported my early belief that they were a savage and warlike people. In my college days I heard professors justify the acts of the white man in taking possession of the land on which the Indians were living. They said the Indians were not developing the available natural resources as the white man could and would develop them.

Stewart Chase in "Rich Land—Poor Land" writes: "when the conservation program was launched by the government in 1933, the most willing hands to be found the nation over were on the Indian reservations, 'simply because group work for community benefit appeals to the Indian social instinct.' That instinct battered by generations of ignomy and humiliation, still survives."

White man has developed natural resources but in many cases has exploited them for private profit. The Indian used them for community benefit at no profit to the individual. Which is better? We do not mean to infer that all development of natural resources resulted in private profit. However, we do want you to see the contrast in favor of the Indian.

As you seniors leave us to go your several ways in life I want to urge you to think in terms of your community success as well as in terms of your personal advancement. We are today more community conscious than we were in any previous period in our history. My opinion is that we shall never return to the highly individualistic ideas of the recent past. I want you to be good Indians.

V. P. WILLIAM L. FINK

Our boat puts in at Ketchikan, Alaska. Here, we shall see the fisher Indians of the great Northwest.

On the wharf, sits an old squaw offering for sale attractive baskets woven from spruce roots and colored with natural dyes. The Indians of the north-land have acquired the art of fashioning things of beauty from materials meager and unprepossessing.

High on a hill, stands the Indian School where a weathered old brave explains to us the significance of the totem. An Indian family displays before its dwelling a totem pole or a family crest. A native wanderer in the Indian country finds open-handed hospitality in a home that displays his totem. He is no longer a stranger but kin.

When an Alaskan leaves his native country, his friends say that he is going "outside." The time has come when you, the members of the Class of 1940, are leaving Arxalma. As you depart, we hope that, like the Indians of the Great Country, you have developed power to transform the commonplace into the beautiful and profitable; that you cherish the high idealism of man's humanity to man. Bon Voyage!

V. P. FLORENCE B. BEITENMAN

In the Indian lore of the Southwest, the yucca is called God's candle. From the hot desert sands, it rises tall and erect; its white flowers carry a message of purity and wonder. Under adverse conditions, it fights its way patiently to maturity and flowering, to all of us a symbol of endurance, of promise, and of beauty.

MR. SANDT'S DEDICATION

On June 21, 1940 after 30 years of faithful service in the Reading School District, Mr. John E. Sandt, teacher of mathematics, will be retired. Mr. Sandt received his diploma from Kutztown State Normal School and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Muhlenberg College. He also attended Harvard and Columbia University. Mr. Sandt first came to Reading in 1910 at which time he became a member of the faculty of the Boys' High School. In 1927, upon completion of the new building, he came to Senior High School where he has been a loyal worker ever since. His activity included not only his teaching as he was a football manager at the Boys' High School for eight years and he has been official at track meets ever since his first year in Reading. The students and faculty of Reading Senior High School appreciate Mr. Sandt's loyalty and faithfulness and wish him much happiness in the future.
